Minor Concentration in Computer Sciences

To obtain a minor concentration in Computer Sciences, students must pass, with grades of A, B, or C, five CS courses that fulfill CS major requirements. All five courses must be taken at Purdue University.

Only one CS 490x (3 credits), where x denotes a literal suffix, can be used.

None of the following can be used:

* "CS _90x" courses at other levels
* CS independent study courses
* EPCS courses (EPICS).

All pre- and co-requisites must be met.

The Course Prerequisite Chart may be helpful in selecting the five courses.

(Effective Fall 2006)
